RE: Notice and Order of Expedited Removal
[REDACTED] (A [REDACTED])

Dear Ms. [REDACTED]

On [REDACTED] [REDACTED], you presented yourself to U. S. Customs and Border Protection Officers at the Derby Line, VT, Port of Entry, and were found inadmissible pursuant to section 212(a)(6)(C)(i) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (“INA”) as an alien who, by fraud or willfully misrepresenting a material fact, sought entry to the United States. Based on this determination of inadmissibility, a Notice and Order of Expedited Removal pursuant to INA § 235(b)(1) was served on [REDACTED], at which time you were physically removed from the United States.

By letter dated [REDACTED], a review of your case was submitted to the attention of the Port Director, Derby Line, by Ms. Trina Realmuto, requesting that CBP vacate the Expedited Removal Order issued against you. I have conducted an in-depth review of your inspection and resulting Notice and Order of Expedited Removal. After careful consideration of this matter, it is my decision to vacate the Order of Expedited Removal.

This letter vacates the Notice and Order of Expedited Removal and also rescinds the five-year bar of entry into the United States. Please retain this letter as proof that the [REDACTED] Expedited Removal Order was vacated.

Sincerely,

Kevin W. Weeks
Director, Field Operations
Boston Field Office
