Immigrant rights has been my life's passion, and I have been a member of the National Immigration Project of the National Lawyers Guild for over 40 years. As I thought about how to have an impact on immigrant justice that will last well beyond my lifetime, my wife Jody LeWitter and I decided to include NIPNLG in our estate plans.

It was incredibly easy to do. And we feel good knowing that NIPNLG's vital work will continue onward for many generations to come.

GROWING OUR FUTURE

INTRODUCING LEGACY GIFTS TO NIPNLG

We hope you will consider making a charitable gift in your will to causes that have been important in your life.

Many of our supporters have included NIPNLG in their will because of the role we have played in their lives and in the struggle for immigrant justice.

Making a legacy gift allows you to have a meaningful impact for generations to come.

I cannot think of a political organization that does better work, or uses its resources more effectively, than the National Immigration Project of the National Lawyers Guild. And, of course, supporting immigrants, especially immigrants struggling with criminal issues, fits well with my personal commitment to supporting the oppressed.

It just seems like a natural extension of my values and my life's work to include NIPNLG in my will. I did it many years ago, and I reaffirm it each time I update my will, because I am so glad to do it.

THE PROMISE OF A STRONG DEFENSE FOR IMMIGRANTS

For over 50 years, NIPNLG has fought for justice for those who bear the brunt of racist and immoral immigration laws in the United States.

We now invite you to help fuel our future

You may join NIPNLG's Legacy donors simply by notifying us that you have included NIPNLG in your will or other estate plan.

Making a Gift in a Will is the easiest and most common way of making a legacy gift. You can name a charity in your will, designating a specific amount of money, a percentage of your estate, or a specific asset. You can also name NIPNLG as a contingent beneficiary.

Beneficiary Designations are simple to accomplish and do not require a will. You simply sign a form from your institution (e.g., bank, insurance company). Examples include traditional IRA, 401(k), 403(b), Keogh, and SEP.

Individual Retirement Accounts (non-Roth)/ IRAs are the most efficient way to make a legacy gift because, if not given to a non-profit, the recipient pays income tax.

Life Insurance can be used to make a gift to NIPNLG. For example, you can name NIPNLG a contingent beneficiary of an existing policy. Your life insurance plan could 'endow' your annual gift to NIPNLG.

As a longtime supporter of the National Immigration Project, I donate my IRA qualified charitable contribution to support its fearless fight for immigrant dignity and justice.

I hope everyone supports NIPNLG, its excellent legal work, trainings, and advocacy. Immigration rights are near and dear to me and my life's profession. Let's keep NIPNLG going in perpetuity!
